Industry Sponsored Satellite Symposia at CACAP:
In past years our annual conference has scheduled breakfast and lunch symposia sponsored by industry. However, in keeping with changing accreditation conditions and to maintain clear professional boundaries, CACAP will no longer offer such symposia. While this will mean that food and beverage offerings will be reduced at our conference, our local arrangements team will provide listings of the many local dining options nearby.

Message from the President
Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 33rd Annual Conference of the Canadian Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry here in the beautiful city of Vancouver.

I would like to express sincere appreciation to Drs. Daniel Gorman and Ashley Wazana, Chair and Vice Chair of the Research and Scientific Program Committee, for their dedication and hard work in preparing such an outstanding program. This year’s theme, “The Child in Social Context” has enabled them to put together a superb selection of invited speakers and an exciting program for all attendees. I would also like to thank Dr. Chris Wilkes, Conference Committee Chair, Dr. Tyler Black, CACAP’s Local Arrangements Consultant, and Lindsay Callan for their great efforts in ensuring the logistics of the meeting and that all runs smoothly.

Our meeting is a wonderful opportunity to network, exchange exciting ideas, learn about the latest developments in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and to reconnect with friends and colleagues.

I look forward to seeing you all!

Clare Gray MD FRCPC
President 2012-2014

Message from the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Research and Scientific Program Committee

We are delighted to welcome you to the 33rd Annual Conference of the Canadian Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. We return this year to beautiful Vancouver and look forward to an exciting conference where knowledge will be shared, collaborations fostered, and friendships rekindled. In recent decades the tremendous advances in genetics and neurobiology have revolutionized our field, enhancing our understanding of the etiology of child psychiatric disorders and paving the way for novel biological treatments. Nonetheless, as Leon Eisenberg stated in his classic paper, “The Social Construction of the Human Brain” (1995), psychiatry is not only “all biological” but also “all social.” This year we examine and celebrate the social aspects of child psychiatry, as the overall theme for the conference is “The Child in Social Context.” We have an outstanding line-up of keynote speakers who will explore how social factors influence mental health and illness in children and families. To satisfy the diverse interests and learning styles of our membership, the program also includes a wide variety of excellent submitted presentations in several formats (Symposia, Academic Perspectives, Workshops, Special Interest Study Groups, and Posters). Finally, we encourage you to reconnect with old friends and make new ones during social events such as the Resident and Faculty Cinq-à-Sept and the President’s Reception. After all, we take the “social” in “social context” very seriously!

Message from the Local Arrangements Team
Welcome to Vancouver, and to the 33rd Annual Conference of the Canadian Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry!

We will be holding the conference in the stunning Wall Centre Hotel, in Downtown Vancouver. Of course, Vancouver has so much to do - snow sports, shopping, and probably one of the world’s most diverse gastronomical opportunities. We are working on the 2013 “Play Therapy” manual which will highlight recommendations from the Local Arrangements Team. Weather permitting, ski season should be starting in Whistler on our weekend, so you may want to come early and stay late! Vancouver is truly a world-class city, and we can’t wait to show it off!
